LUC ROBITAILLE

President, Alternate Governor

Luc Robitaille – a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, the all-time Kings leader in goals and the second-highest goal scoring left wing in NHL history – is in his ninth season as Kings President. He directs and oversees all hockey and business operations.

In April 2017, Robitaille was promoted to President. Robitaille also is an Alternate Governor with the Kings. He is his 19th season overall in the Kings front office after working the previous 10 years as President, Business Operations. He played 19 seasons in the NHL, including 14 with the Kings.

Since his playing career ended, Robitaille has had a tremendous impact on the Kings as an executive. For the Kings Business Operations department, revenue has more than doubled as the Kings won their first two Stanley Cups. Additionally, the team enjoyed a record sellout streak of 297 consecutive home games, including 262 straight regular-season contests. The Kings were named the Sports Team of the Year by the Sports Business Journal in 2015.

Robitaille has been a driving force for the growth of hockey in Southern California, launching the Little Kings Learn-to-Play program and the LA Kings High School Hockey League. Robitaille has also helped develop the Kings Care Foundation's principles, values, and strategic direction. He is on the Board of Children's Hospital Los Angeles and Ronald McDonald House, and he and his wife, Stacia, are the co-founders of a non-profit organization, Echoes of Hope.

He has also played a significant role behind organizing such unique events as the 2010 NHL Entry Draft and the 2017 NHL All-Star Game at Crypto.com Arena. In 2014, the Kings hosted the Anaheim Ducks in a regular-season outdoor NHL game at Dodger Stadium in front of 54,099 fans. The Kings played outdoor hockey again in 2015 at Levi's Stadium and in 2020 at the U.S. Air Force Academy and have played overseas on multiple occasions.

Robitaille ranks 13th in overall NHL goal-scoring and 24th in points while playing for the Kings, Penguins, Rangers, and Red Wings, where he won a Stanley Cup in 2002. Among NHL left wingers, Robitaille is second in points (1,394), goals (668), and assists (726). In 1,077 regular season games as a King, Robitaille tallied 557 goals and 597 assists for 1,154 points. With the Kings, he ranks fifth in games played, second in points, first in power-play goals, and fifth in assists.

A ninth-round selection (171st overall) in the 1984 NHL Entry Draft, the Montreal native became the first Kings player to win the Calder Memorial Trophy in 1987 and was named to the NHL's All-Rookie Team. Later, Robitaille helped lead the Kings to the club's first trip to the Stanley Cup Final in 1993 as he set NHL records for the most goals (63) by a left wing. Robitaille would go on to reach other milestones in a Kings uniform, including his 500th career goal, and saw his No. 20 jersey retired by the Kings. Robitaille was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2009, and he has since been named one the NHL's 100 greatest players of all-time.

Luc, 59 (2/17/66), and Stacia have two sons, Steven and Jesse. They reside in Santa Monica.

KEN HOLLAND

Vice President and General Manager

Holland joins the Kings as the fifth-winningest general manager in NHL history, accumulating an all-time record of 1,145-644-272 (.622 PTS %) over 26 seasons between the Detroit Red Wings (1997-2019) and Edmonton Oilers (2019-24) at the time of his hiring. Holland joins the Kings following his most recent five-year stint with Edmonton where he managed the team to five consecutive postseason berths, including three 100-point seasons and a trip to the 2024 Stanley Cup Finals. This past season, Holland worked as a Consultant for the NHL's Hockey Operations Department.

Prior to joining Edmonton, Holland spent 34 years with the Detroit Red Wings organization, including 22 seasons as the team's general manager where he led the Red Wings to three Stanley Cup Championships (1998, 2002, 2008; won in 1997 as AGM), four Presidents Trophies (2002, 2004, 2006, 2008), 10 division championships (1991, 2001-04, 2006-09, 2011), five regular season conference titles (2002, 2004, 2006-08) and eclipsed 100-point plateau in the regular-season 14 of his 22 seasons at the helm.

During his time as general manager with Detroit, Holland guided the team to more combined regular season and postseason wins (1,044) than any other NHL franchise. His 1,044 combined regular season and playoff win total is the third-most by a general manager for a single franchise in league history behind Harry Sinden (1,297 with BOS) and Lou Lamoriello (1,229 with NJD). Individually, his 925 regular season and 119 playoff victories each rank fourth-most for a single franchise all-time.

The Red Wings reached the playoffs for each of his first 18 seasons as general manager as part of Detroit's 25 consecutive seasons of making the Stanley Cup Playoffs (1990-2016). Detroit's 18 straight campaigns of playoff appearances under Holland stands as the third-longest streak by a general manager in NHL history after Harry Sinden (24; 1972-96 with BOS) and Jack Adams (20; 1938-58 with DET).

A 2020 Hockey Hall of Fame inductee, Holland served in several different roles within the organization prior to being named general manager, including assistant general manager (1994-97), general manager of the Adirondack Red Wings of the American Hockey League (AHL; 1994-97), amateur scouting director (1987-94) and western conference scout (1985-87).

Internationally, the Vernon, BC native has served on several management staffs for Hockey Canada, winning gold medals at the 2010 and 2014 Olympic Winter Games and at the 2016 World Cup of Hockey.

As a goaltender, Holland was drafted by Toronto in the 12th round (188th overall) of the 1975 NHL Entry Draft, playing in four NHL games with Detroit and Hartford Whalers. Holland retired as a player after the 1984-85 season and transitioned into a scouting role. Holland and his wife Cindi have four children: Brad, Julie, Rachel and Greg.

He remains the school's all-time leading scorer with 294 points. He also finished as the CCHA's all-time leading scorer and is seventh on the NCAA's all-time points list.

Nelson and his wife, June, reside in Manhattan Beach with their four children: daughters Mackenzie and Madelyn, and sons, Quinn and Blake.

Bergevin joined the Kings after nine years (2012-21) as General Manager of the Montreal Canadiens, where he built the team that advanced to the 2021 Stanley Cup Final against the Tampa Bay Lightning. Prior to Montreal, he spent seven seasons (2005-12) in various positions with the Chicago Blackhawks, winning a Stanley Cup in 2010 as Director of Player Personnel.

Originally selected by Chicago 59th overall in the second round of the 1983 NHL Draft, Bergevin enjoyed a 20-year NHL career as a defenseman with Chicago (1984-88), New York Islanders (1988-90), Hartford Whalers (1990-92), Tampa Bay (1992-95; 2003), Detroit Red Wings (1995-96), St. Louis Blues (1996-2000; 2001-02), Pittsburgh Penguins (2000-01, 2002-03 and 2003-04) and Vancouver Canucks (2004). A native of Montreal, Quebec, Bergevin is a two-time Calder Cup (AHL) winner with the Springfield Indians (1990, 1991) and earned a gold medal with Canada at the 1994 IIHF Men's World Championship. He played his junior hockey with the Chicoutimi Saguenéens, recording 76 points (13-68=76) in 136 QMJHL games.

GLEN MURRAY

Senior Director of Player Development

Glen Murray enters his 10th season with the Kings Player Development Department and fourth in his role as Senior Director of Player Personnel.

Murray, who played for the Kings for parts of six seasons (1996-2002), first joined the organization's front office in 2011-12 as a part-time consultant before formally joining the Player Development department in 2016-17.

A native of Halifax, Nova Scotia, Murray played 16 seasons in the NHL. In 1,009 regular-season NHL games, he registered 651 points (337-314=651) with Los Angeles, the Boston Bruins (1992-95; 2001-08) and Pittsburgh Penguins (1995-97). He also played in 94 postseason games where he recorded 42 points.

A two-time All-Star, Murray recorded a career-best campaign in 2002-03 with 44 goals, 48 assists and 92 points in 82 games. He scored as many as 28 goals in a season five different times, including a team-high 29 goals with the Kings during the 1997-98 season. His 41 goals in 2001-02 were second-most in the NHL.

Glen and his wife Katie have three children: Parker, Hunter and Payton.

- This was the city's third time as a host city and first time since 2002.
- The Kings also hosted the 2002 event at STAPLES Center and the 1981 event at the Great Western Forum.
- For Drew Doughty, 2017 marked both his third career All-Star appearance and his third straight All-Star appearance (all with the Kings).
- For Jeff Carter, his 2017 All-Star appearance was his first as a King and second overall (2009 with Philadelphia).
- Doughty and Carter, representing the Pacific Division, lost to the Metropolitan Division by a score of 4-3 in the Final after beating the Central Division 10-3 in the opening round of inter-divisional play.

2016 Notes:
- Drew Doughty and Jonathan Quick represented the Pacific Divison in 2016 - as did Kings head coach Darryl Sutter - as a new 3-on-3 tournament to determine a winner was introduced for the All-Star Game.
- The new format divided the All-Star Game into three 20-minute games, with star players from each division making up the four All-Star teams: Pacific, Central, Atlantic, and Metropolitan.
- The players faced off in a winner-take-all $1 million inter-division tournament, with the Pacific Division beating the Atlantic Division 1-0 in the Final.

2015 Notes:
- Drew Doughty and Anze Kopitar both played for Team Foligno in 2015, and that team was coached by Kings head coach Darryl Sutter.
- The 2015 All-Star Game featured a draft format where first captains were selected for each team (Team Foligno and Team Toews), and then those captains drafted their respective teams from the remaining All-Stars.
- Team Toews beat Team Foligno 17-12 to win the 2015 All-Star Game.

TELEVISION – FanDuel Sports Network West (FDSNW) continues its long-standing tradition of bringing fans Los Angeles Kings telecasts – which began in 1985 – by providing the most coverage of the Kings on television during the 2025-26 season. Coverage on FDSNW features the broadcast team of John Kelly, Jim Fox and and a collection of guest analysts.

"LA Kings Live" airs prior to and immediately following home games from Crypto.com Arena – and road telecasts on Bally Sports West. Patrick O'Neal serves as host, while former Kings forward Jarret Stoll is a featured analyst on "LA Kings Live" as is Derek Armstrong. On October 2, 2006, Miller received a star on the famous Hollywood Boulevard Walk of Fame. On February 4, 2002, Miller was inducted into the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Hall of Fame, where he served as that organization's President for five years. The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association also named him the California Sportscaster of the Year in 1997 and 2002.

In 2013, Miller's second book – Tales from the Los Angeles Kings Locker Room – was released. In 2006 he authored the book, Bob Miller's Tales from the Los Angeles Kings.

Michael Altieri is in his 31st season with the Kings where he has guided the Kings organizational narrative, communication and brand strategy, while holding numerous positions in the areas of communications, media relations, broadcasting, marketing, game entertainment, content development and production since joining the organization in 1995.

Currently serving as Senior Vice President, Marketing, Communications and Content, Altieri's current scope of responsibility with the Kings includes directing and overseeing all Kings consumable content such as Marketing, Digital, Production, Game Operations and Events, Communications and Broadcasting. He also guides the logistical functions within Team Operations and Player Services. A Board Member for the Kings Care Foundation and an original member of the NHL's Communications Advisory Board, Altieri joined the organization in 1995 as a Media Relations Assistant, which eventually led to him serving as the Kings primary media contact from 1996-07. He was named Senior Vice President, Communications and Broadcasting prior to the start of the 2003-04 season and, while continuing to oversee the Kings Communications and Broadcasting departments, he led the Kings' efforts in the creation of an internal video and content production department which not only supported the Kings' popular on-line video platform – then-called Kings Vision – but also developed content for all Kings business entities. In addition, Altieri was actively involved in the concept and launch of LAKingsinsider.com.

Altieri was also part of the Kings leadership team that helped execute two successful Stanley Cup Finals (2012 and 2014), three Kings outdoor hockey games in 2014, 2015 and 2020, and the 2017 NHL All-Star Weekend in Los Angeles.

Prior to the Kings, Altieri, a graduate of California State University, Long Beach, served as Director of Public Relations for Forum Sports, Inc. AEG COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

At AEG, our business is interwoven with the human mind and heart. We seek to reach beyond the traditional boundaries of business to support the communities where we operate. The AEG Community Foundation was established to build on AEG's unwavering commitment to serving children and families across the United States through grantmaking. The mission of the Foundation is to support children and families in need through grantmaking in the areas of K-12 education, the arts, and health and wellness. We believe that corporate philanthropy and community engagement play a critical role in helping communities thrive.

Kings Care FOUNDATION

The mission of Kings Care Foundation is to support families in Los Angeles by dedicating financial and in-kind resources to services and programs. To that end, the LA Kings Hockey Club reinvests in LA-based non-profits with the following shared goals:

- Wellness - Support institutions and programs that ensure the mental and physical development of youth in Los Angeles.
- Sustainability - Prioritize sustainable business practices in our facilities and mobilize the entire LA Kings community to act responsibly.
- Social Advocacy - Address the challenges which threaten our local communities.
- Inclusion - Foster environments that welcome individuals of all races, genders, socio-economic backgrounds and abilities.

Current Kings Care Foundation Commitments

- Kings Care Foundation recently committed $1,000,000 over 5 years in support of the Blood Donor Center, Division of Neurosurgery and Sickle Cell Disease program. Since its formation, the Foundation has contributed over $3,000,000 in financial support.

- The LA Kings have pledged a total of $1,600,000 to fund Ball Hockey league play in community YMCAs across Los Angeles. This play expansion partnership invites kids to learn new skills and fall in love with the game. Furthermore, this partnership advances Kings Care Foundation's goal to achieve greater play equity in hockey by eliminating financial and accessibility barriers to enter the sport.

- The LA Kings Science of Hockey exhibit at Discovery Cube Los Angeles opened in 2015 as a fun and interactive application of science and math concepts to the sport of hockey. The Foundation pledged $2,500,000 over to develop and maintain the exhibit, which provides another entry point to the sport for kids who have not yet attended or played the game.

- The Kings Care Foundation supports ThruGUIDANCE's diversity ice skating program, 24° of Color based out of the Toyota Sports Performance Center and LA Kings Iceland at Paramount. The program aims to diversify ice skating and ice hockey in LA County by making these sports more accessible financially, ensuring diverse representation at the rink, and providing resources for participants to compete competitively, if interested. Specifically, the Foundation's monetary commitment sponsors youth players through the We Are All Kings Hockey Pathway with the goal of progressing to join an in-house hockey league team.

- The "We Are All Kings" platform signals the LA Kings commitment to creating a culture in which every individual feels welcome in the Kings family. Namesake programming will reflect two values the LA Kings holds to its core, inclusivity and equity, ensuring every player and fan is embraced within the sport of hockey locally.

HISTORY OF AEG AND ITS HOCKEY SPORTS PROPERTIES

ONTARIO REIGN

AEG History – Officially became a property of AEG in 2008 and elevated to the American Hockey League prior to the 2015-16 season. This year the team celebrates its 16th season.

Team History – The Ontario Reign proudly served as the ECHL affiliate of the Kings for several seasons before becoming the organization's primary minor league affiliate prior to the 2015-16 season. In their first AHL season, the Reign captured Pacific Division and Western Conference regular-season titles and advanced to the Western Conference Finals in the Calder Cup Playoffs. The Reign went on to qualify for the playoffs in each of the following two seasons, reaching the Pacific Division Semifinals. The Reign hosted the 2020 AHL All-Star Classic, the first time the event was ever held in California, and celebrated the 15th anniversary of professional hockey in the Inland Empire during the 2022-23 season. The Reign have ranked in the AHL's top 10 in attendance in all eight of their seasons as the Kings top developmental affiliate, in addition to holding the league's largest season-ticket holder base.

Located 40 miles east of Los Angeles, the Reign play at Toyota Arena and practice at the Toyota Sports Performance Center in El Segundo, where the team held games during the 2020-21 season. The proximity to the Kings benefits both organizations, and in addition to on-ice success, the Reign have set numerous attendance records and have earned several league-wide awards.

EISBAREN BERLIN

AEG History – Acquired by AEG on September 3, 1999, and a 15-time East German Hockey Champion as Dynamo Berlin.

GARNET "ACE" BAILEY AND MARK BAVIS TRIBUTE

Garnet "Ace" Bailey, who was 53, was set to begin his 33rd season in the NHL as a player or scout. Bailey had enjoyed a tremendous amount of success in both capacities, with seven Stanley Cup rings as proof. Having spent seven years as the Kings' director of pro scouting, Bailey spent the previous 13 years as a scout with the Edmonton Oilers.

Bailey's ability to evaluate NHL talent helped the Oilers to five Stanley Cups in the 1980s. During Edmonton's many great playoff runs, Bailey played the key role of advance scout, supplying detailed information on upcoming opponents.

A veteran of 11 NHL seasons as a player, Bailey broke in with the Boston Bruins during the 1968-69 season and spent five years with the club. While with the Bruins, he was a member of Stanley Cup championship teams in 1969-70 and 1971-72. Bailey also spent parts of two seasons each with the Detroit Red Wings and St. Louis Blues, and three-plus years with the Washington Capitals.

Bailey, who was originally from Lloydminster, Saskatchewan, jumped to the World Hockey Association for the 1978-79 season and joined the Edmonton Oilers, where he was a linemate of teenage phenom Wayne Gretzky.

Ace lived in the Boston suburb of Lynnfield with wife Katherine and son Todd.

The Los Angeles Kings family was deeply shaken and saddened over the loss of Garnet "Ace" Bailey and Mark Bavis, two club scouts who were aboard United Airlines Flight 175 from Boston's Logan Airport on September 11, 2001. Both men sported fantastic personalities and their love for the sport of hockey was evident in their work, and their passion for the Kings helped foster a fun and winning attitude. Both Mark and Ace are incredibly missed indeed.

Mark Bavis, who was 31, was entering his second season as an amateur scout for the Kings. A native of the Boston-area, Bavis played college hockey at Boston University. Prior to joining the Kings he worked as a coach with Chicago of the North American League and as an assistant coach with Harvard of the Eastern College Athletic Conference.

Bavis, who was drafted by the New York Rangers in the ninth round (181st overall) of the 1989 NHL Entry Draft, made his home in West Newton, Massachusetts. He was survived by his mother, Mary; his twin brother, Mike; two brothers, Pat and Johnny; and three sisters, Kelly, Mary Ellen and Kathy. To help support each of the men and their lasting legacies, please visit The Mark Bavis Leadership Foundation at markbavisleadershipfoundation.org, and for information on The Ace Bailey Children's Foundation, please visit acebailey.org and follow them @AceBaileyFdtn.

Please visit The Mark Bavis Leadership Foundation at markbavisleadershipfoundation.org. In November 2020, the Ace Bailey Children's Foundation – after 19-plus years – closed its doors. The organization remains grateful to everyone who helped improve the experience of hospitalization for kids and their families at Tufts Children's Hospital in Boston. Both Foundations helped support each of the men and their lasting legacies
